

Jake Lang has been involved with Potter's House soccer program since the summer of 2014, serving as an assistant coach to Randy Basinger and the Varsity Boys Soccer program. Before coming to Potter's House, Jake was the JV Boys soccer head coach at Freedom Christian in 2011 and the Varsity Assistant Coach from 2011-2014. Jake grew up in Hudsonville, MI where he attended Freedom Christian Schools from K-12, graduating in 2007. He played all four years of high school soccer at Freedom and led his team to two district championships (2005 and 2006), one of which he was captain for. Jake went on to play soccer for Moody Bible Institute for one year before needing surgery that brought an end to his competitive career. He now enjoys coaching and playing in rec leagues.

Jake graduated from Moody Bible Institute in December, 2010 with a BA in Youth Ministry. He serves in his church's youth group (Grace Community Church) as a volunteer leader. He currently works at Great Lakes Fasteners and Supply as an Inside Sales Representative. Jake lives right down the street from Potter's House High School and has been married to his wife, Sarah since April 2011.
